

Aspects of Anatomy: exploring basic shoulder anatomy and function in dance

Course tutor: Sho Botham PhD, MA
 Dance & Health Education Consultant
 Email: sho@cpdfordanceteachers.com

Course type	One of the series of short online CPD courses for dance teachers and trainee dance teachers created by Sho Botham
Duration	3 weeks
Aim	To offer dance teachers an online CPD opportunity with email tutorial support
Learning outcomes/objectives	On completion of this course you should have: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • explored basic anatomy of the shoulder • explored function of the shoulder in relation to a dance genre you teach • planned and delivered a taught session applying the anatomy and function understanding to your own dance teaching practice • reflected on your taught session • engaged in three tutorial email sessions with your course tutor
Time	Time commitment for the course is 10 hours over the three weeks. With the flexibility offered by doing this CPD online you can choose when to study and prepare assignments to fit around your existing work and family commitments.
Delivery	The course is delivered via short, online, learning activities that may include reading, presentations or videos and practical tasks. Some learning materials or practical tasks are provided as PDF files for you to download. A weekly email tutorial with your course tutor is an important aspect of the course providing opportunities for discussion, reflection and feedback. Generic outline: Week 1 - Guided learning and/or reviewing Week 2 - Planning and application to practice Week 3 - Reflections and future practice NB: There is no formal essay writing on this course. Any writing is in note form.
Certificate of completion	A certificate showing the date of completion will be sent to you following your completion of the course.