

Safe Dance Teaching Practice: Teaching the Adolescent Dancer

Course tutor: Sho Botham PhD, MA
 Dance & Health Education Consultant
 Email: sho@cpdfordanceteachers.com

Course type	One of a series of short online CPD courses for dance teachers and trainee dance teachers created by Sho Botham
Duration	3 weeks
Aim	To offer dance teachers an online CPD opportunity with email tutorial support
Learning outcomes/objectives	On completion of this course you should have: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • identified key physical changes relating to the adolescent growth spurt and considered how they might impact on dance learning • considered some typical psychological issues relating to adolescent dancers • considered effective teaching approaches and modifications to support the adolescent dancer • planned and delivered a taught class or session to adolescents, in a dance genre you teach, making effective use of content from this course • reflected on your taught class or session • engaged in three tutorial email sessions with your course tutor
Time	Time commitment for the course is 10 hours over the three weeks. With the flexibility offered by doing this CPD online you can choose when to study and prepare assignments to fit around your existing work and family commitments.
Delivery	The course is delivered via short, online, learning activities that may include reading, presentations or videos and practical tasks. Some learning materials or practical tasks are provided as PDF files for you to download. A weekly email tutorial with your course tutor is an important aspect of the course providing opportunities for discussion, reflection and feedback. Generic outline: Week 1 - Guided learning and/or reviewing Week 2 - Planning and application to practice Week 3 - Reflections and future practice NB: There is no formal essay writing on this course. Any writing is in note form.
Certificate of completion	A certificate showing the date of completion will be sent to you following your completion of the course.